

RECOMMENDED WEBSITES for TREATMENT AND RECOVERY RESOURCES

buprenorphine.samhsa.gov – Search “DATA Physician Locator” for an interactive map by state. Lists physicians certified to prescribe buprenorphine. Please note that this is not an exhaustive list, as physicians are not required to list themselves here.

OxfordHouse.org - Oxford Houses are democratically run, self-supporting and drug free homes.

recoverykentucky.com – residential recovery help for chronic substance abuse and addiction.

dbhdid.ky.gov – Search “Provider Directory” for assistance in locating various types of treatment in KY. This includes services such as crisis stabilization, psychiatric hospitals, DUI education providers, and licensed drug and alcohol treatment.

Samhsa.gov – (SAMHSA) is the federal agency created to address prevention, treatment, and recovery in behavioral health. This site provides multiple resources, free publications, information on current research and data, and current news. Search “Treatment” for assistance in locating public and private opiate addiction treatment programs across the country.

Naabtt.org – National Alliance of Advocates for Buprenorphine Treatment provides assistance with locating providers who are authorized to provide treatment with buprenorphine. You may also use this site to locate pharmacies and counseling.

attcnetwork.org –The Addiction Technology Transfer Center network is funded by SAMHSA and provides resources, training, and skill building to addiction treatment professionals.

Hbo.com/addiction is a collaborative project between HBO, NIDA, NIAAA, and the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation. This site provides information on addiction, stigma, treatment, multiple resources, as well as free access to the documentary series and the supplemental films.

Cdar.uky.edu – UK Center on Drug and Alcohol Research conducts research into various aspects of substance use disorders and related behavior. You can access information on publications, learn more about current projects, and download several reports for free.

addictionsurvivors.org – online communities and peer support for individuals addicted to opiates, alcohol, benzodiazepines, and stimulants. These include forums for working the 12 Steps, support for family and friends, and support for individuals in medication assisted treatment and recovery.

Al-anon.alateen.org – 12-Step programs that provide support for friends, family members, and children/young adults that have been impacted by an individual’s alcoholism. This site provides resources, literature about the programs, and a meeting locator.

aa-intergroup.org – Alcoholics Anonymous Online Intergroup allows you to search for local meetings, online meetings and forums, review AA literature, and search the events calendar.

area26.net – KY Committee of Alcoholics Anonymous (Area 26) provides information about events, AA meeting locations in KY, AA literature, and brief reports.

celebraterecovery.com – Christian centered, self-help recovery program. The website provides information on meeting locations, materials to start your own meetings, and explanation of the eight recovery principles that the program is centered on.

Peopleadvocatingrecovery.org - PAR is a KY based group of concerned individuals working to eliminate barriers to recovery from addiction.

facesandvoicesofrecovery.com – (FAVOR) is a national, non-profit organization that works to change public perceptions of recovery, promote effective public policy, and demonstrate that recovery works. This site provides current news, personal stories, recovery resources, and a number of free publications.

Methadone.org – National Alliance of Medication Assisted Recovery (NAMA) is an organization that brings together treatment professionals, patients, and the community to advocate for addressing stigma and improving access to quality MAT. This site provides information on how to become a certified advocate, current news, educational materials and publications, and resources for patients.